

2017 Media Award Nomination: Teri Carnicelli – North Central News

Teri Carnicelli has been the editor of the North Central News for more than 13 years. In that time, she has created an extensive School News section, covering people and events from the Osborn, Washington and Madison Elementary districts as well as the Phoenix Union and Glendale Union high school districts. Also included are Xavier and Brophy high schools and several other private and charter schools in the North Central community.
