Lynette receiving her University of Phoenix Alumni Community Service Award for 2013 which is one of 150 awards presented around the country from the University of Phoenix. When you consider UOP has over 800,000 alumni, Lynette's award puts her at the top of a very large group.

This evening I was honored to have my daughter Pam, my niece Jessica, my long-time friend Patsy Doyle and her friend Jill at the University of Phoenix's Southern Arizona Homecoming event as I was one of three local's to receive the Alumni Community Service Award for 2013. This is what was said:

The annual Alumni Community Service Award recognizes alumni excellence in community involvement and outreach. The Alumni Association likes to shine a light on graduates who are dedicated to making a difference and changing lives in their communities, while continuing to work hard in their careers.
