President's Message - Nancy Rosenbaum

I hope this holiday season is finding you all happy, safe, and healthy! While this holiday season looks a bit different this year, I have faith that you will still find that the joy and magic of the season are still within each of you.

These past few months have brought many things to be thankful for. As we head toward the New Year, I wanted to take a moment to reflect upon the successes of our chapter over the past six months.

- Our chapter has demonstrated an abundance of love for the women of the Lundquist Scholarship House. Many sisters donated items to stock their pantry and participated in our meeting to get to know them better. As a result, the Lundquist House women are looking forward to getting to know US better. We look forward to meeting with them again in the spring.
- Our Health and Wellness program shared vital information about COVID-19 from a physical health and mental health perspective.
- The Difficult Conversations group, led by Dr. Monica Hayes, has started, and the members of this group RAVE about the fulfilling conversations and self-reflection they are participating in.
- Our ELC Book Drive is underway and our focus on a multi-cultural theme will be a benefit to the children receiving these books.
- We were able to support the classrooms of two DKG sisters by donating funds to help them with needed supplies. If you are a current teacher and have classroom needs, keep your eyes peeled for another opportunity to be supported in the New Year!
- Alpha Kappa inducted five fabulous key women educators to our chapter this November!

I am positive that the New Year will bring many more exciting opportunities for our members. If you ever have any ideas for programs or projects to support, we always encourage you to share them with us. The strength of our chapter comes from our collective passion for education!

It is a blessing for me to be a part of Alpha Kappa. I hope you all have a joyful holiday season and a wonderful start to the New Year!

Induction Highlights – Alpha Kappa inducted 5 new members on Sunday, November 15th. Many members from the three BBCC chapters joined the Zoom meeting. Sharon Simmons, of Beta Phi and chair of the BBCC hosted the meeting and the three presidents, Nancy Rosenbaum of Alpha Kappa, Melissa Martin of Alpha Lambda, and Charlotte Davis of Beta Phi presented the induction program. A total of 11 women were inducted. The guest speaker was Nancy Henning, our State President and member of Alpha Kappa. During the ceremony, Rhonda Work, who prepared the table, lit the candles and placed them within the triangle as each inductee's name was called. Thank you to all who attended and participated.

Our Projects – Sisters, please remember to support our projects. The children and our teachers need our support. This is a particularly difficult year for all teachers, having to teach face-to-face and virtually. And for our children, many rely on community support for their daily meals and for books to read at home. The Lundquist ladies appreciate our help in “Packing their Pantry”.
