

Celebrating Our Impact

2017 Psi State Georgia Convention Newsletter

Dr. Lyn Schmid, immediate past International President, will be joining us for our Psi State Georgia Convention on April 28 -30, 2017

Registration For the Convention Is Open

Important areas to look for on registration form.

1. Cost for registration went up $5. NOW $80.
2. No Cost for First Timers Tea. You must indicate if you plan to attend.
3. Please do not forget to indicate if you have special dietary needs. See page 3 for full menu.
4. President's Afternoon Tea (By Invitation Only): No Cost
5. Form and money ($80) due by April 3, 2017--- After then $100.

Woman of Impact

Form attached at the end of the newsletter. Recognize as many women as you like for the impact they are making in your chapter and the community.
It is only $5 per person.

Chapter Display of Impacting Others

Each chapter is encouraged to bring at least one to three pictures (5 x 7) pictures showing their chapter's impact on the community or its members. Do not forget to include chapter name, district, and the activity being conducted.

Example: District VI-Beta Theta- Packing purses with needed items for the women's abused center in Savannah.

Chapter presidents will attach these pictures on display boards in Mahler Hall early Saturday morning.

Pictures will need to be picked up at the end of Impact Session Part II. District Directors, please check the boards. This will be the last event in the hall.

Celebrating Our Impact

Volunteers Needed

The convention committee readily admits that they need help.

--Facilitators, table hosts, registration, setup and take down crew for meetings/luncheon/banquet, and more--
Send your contact information to jjscarboro@bellsouth.net (Judy) and I will pass your name on to the ladies who are coordinating different events.

STEP & REPEAT

What in the world is this?
Simply a backdrop for pictures.
Location: Hill Atrium
See posted schedule for times when props will be available.
Lorelei Faucette will coordinate the schedule.

Conventions are costly! BADGES

To save on future conventions, reusable badges have been purchased.
Baskets will be available Saturday afternoon and night and Sunday morning for you to deposit your badges in for future use. The baskets will be located outside Mahler Hall on Saturday and outside Room KL Sunday morning.

Candid Shots of Convention

Heather Scarboro has volunteered her services as a photographer for the convention. She will be in and out of sessions recording the events.

Many of you will be taking pictures also.
Please share those pictures with us by emailing them to jjscarboro@bellsouth.net.

After the convention, we plan to make a memory book.

Start Your Day With a Good Breakfast

The UGA Center is opening their cafe for us on Saturday and Sunday at 7:00 a.m.

The Java Coffee Bar opens at 7:30 a.m.

The Savannah Room opens at 7:30 a.m. We have found this to be much slower than the cafe. It would be hard to get to the meeting on time.

Woman of Impact

The purpose of this award is to promote the ideals of Delta Kappa Gamma and to honor a member of Delta Kappa Gamma who currently displays a commitment to education and community and is considered to be a dedicated and innovative professional by her peers.
