

What to Expect When Your State Ambassador Comes to Visit

By Bonnie Lawhorn

You will receive a letter asking that you set up a time when your State Ambassador can visit either in person or via Zoom.

Before their visit, you will need to send a copy of your Chapter Budget, your Yearbook, and a current copy of your Rules for them to review. If you send out a newsletter, it is a great idea to send that as well. This aids in giving them a view of your chapter before they meet you in person.

It may be your first time as President and it can be a bit overwhelming, but DKG ILSO is here to help you in any way that we can. The main thing is, do not be hesitant to ask for assistance.

Please do not stress, they are coming to meet the members of your chapter. They, too, are members of ILSO and have been members for many years. They will come with greetings from our State President, Dr. Joan Róg, to let you know that the state organization appreciates you and your chapter. They will then report to you and your Chapter any suggestions that they may have.

You may ask why are they coming during the first year of my biennium? Well, they want to be of assistance as you start out and answer any questions that you may have. Communication is the key at every level in our organization. You may have been online to research answers to your questions but having a person that you can contact is always a benefit.
