

WHERE CAN I FIND HELP?

- Consult with my chapter executive board, especially the past president
- Review the files and written communications from my chapter chairmen, the state organization president, and state committee chairmen
- Network with other chapter presidents at meetings of the state executive board
- Contact state officers or committee chairmen for information