Message from President Karen Parker

Good evening ladies! Like you, I am closing a busy Christmas season and looking forward to a new year....2019!!! Can you believe it? As we anticipate the arrival of a new year, it is always a time of reflection and goal setting. I hope that reflecting upon your activity in Alpha Beta will remind you of the reasons that you joined this organization and renew your dedication to Delta Kappa Gamma. We are privileged to have the opportunity to network professionally with our sisters and to share in opportunities to make an impact in our community.

Pre-K classrooms at Selma Elementary were impacted this year as each and every child carried home a book for Christmas due to the generosity of our group. Special thanks to Amy Stanley and Heather Pennica and the Literacy Committee for organizing this project! Seventy-four books were delivered to these students before the Christmas holidays.

Right around the corner is another opportunity for us to make an impact, not only on our community, but on our profession. Renee Wiggs and the Beginning Teacher Support Committee have been in contact with Janet Lebo, the director of Beginning Teacher Support for Johnston County Schools (JCS), and are currently in the process of collecting supplies for new teachers. These can be turned in at the AG Glenn Building in Smithfield. What a...See Page 2

Opportunities for Creativity

In late Dec. I signed up for a mosaic art class. To my surprise, one of my Alpha Beta Sisters, Terri Sessoms, also signed up for the class. We worked on our projects for almost seven hours. It was a great day of fun and fellowship. The class was offered by two Johnston County School (JCS) art teachers, Jane Roberts, who recently retired and her daughter, Mary Katherine, who teaches art in an elementary school in Johnston County Schools. Our projects turned out great, even if I have to say so myself.

Leadership Quest

Ready for a wonderful professional development opportunity close to home? You are in luck. Eta State is offering one entitled, A Leadership Quest: Discovering How YOU Sparkle! I had the opportunity to attend an Eta State leadership seminar and I can honestly say it was an outstanding professional experience. The registration deadline is quickly approaching for the Leadership Development Seminar. It will be held on March 22- 23, 2019, at Caraway Conference Center in Asheboro.

The registration form is available on the Eta State NC Website under the Forms tab and it can be completed online. If you want a hard copy of the form, I have included a copy on Page 16 for your convenience.

Single room registration will be $75. Registrants paying by credit card will be charged a $3.00 processing fee. There is a limited number of spaces remaining, so register soon. If you have questions, feel free to email Tonya Welch, Leadership Development Committee Chair, at tpwelch@gtcc.edu.

Innovative Teachers and Students

Congratulations to one of our Alpha Beta Sisters, Stacy Holloman, Pine Level Elementary, who was one of several recipients of a Johnston County Schools (JCS) Grant for $16,000. The grants were awarded in December to use in innovative practices in JCS classrooms and schools.

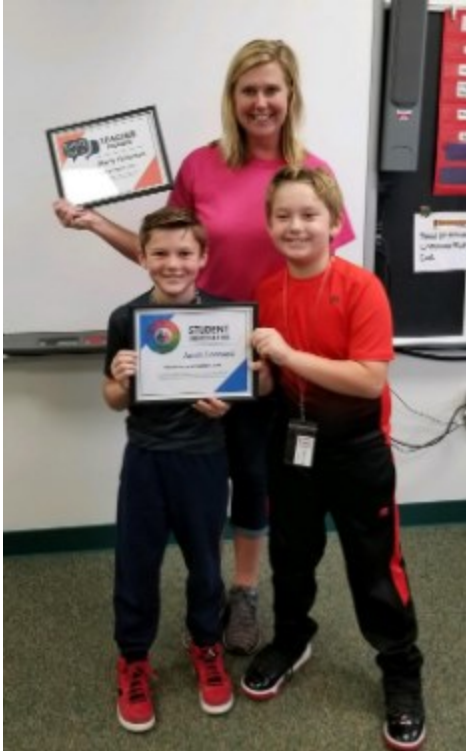

The JCS department of Academic Innovation funded the grants from within their budget. The department awarded $500 grants to 32 students and teachers who submitted proposals detailing why they needed the funds to be innovative.

Another Alpha Beta Sister, Amy Stanley, JCS Director of Digital Innovation, shared that the idea for the grants came from a national conference she attended. The grants would be given to students and teachers who had innovative ideas that could improve their community or school. Once the teachers and students were identified, the grant was presented to them to bring their ideas to reality.

Amy also shared that this is the first year that JCS has offered this type of grant to its students. Proposals from students ranged from wanting money to buy drones to simulate how bees pollinate flowers to new audio/visual equipment to improve a school's news broadcast.

Before receiving the grant money, students used their mentor's smartphone to record their broadcast. With the awarded funds they plan to buy a camera, a microphone, and other materials to enhance their newscast.

Innovative ideas behind the teacher's grants ranged from creating flexible learning environments in the classroom to purchasing STEM supplies for students. Stacy plans to use the grant funds to promote collaboration, communication, and high order thinking through games and morning meetings. Way to go, Stacy!

Eta State NC Convention 2019

The Eta State NC 2019 Convention is going to be held at the Crowne Plaza, Hickory Hotel, May 3-5. Hotel rooms fill pretty quickly so make your reservations ASAP by calling the hotel at 828-323-1000. The rate is $95 plus tax. Remember to ask for the DKG block of rooms and pricing.

Ads can be purchased for the 2019 Eta State NC Convention program! Here are some suggestions to get you motivated and thinking:

- Honor/memorialize a chapter member or members
- Celebrate chapter projects and/or causes
- Promote businesses owned by chapter members
- Recognize accomplishments/honors of members, teams, and committees

The Saturday afternoon sessions are always a popular part of the convention and afford learning and sharing opportunities. Strands for topics include:

- DKG Society,
- Professional Growth, and
- Personal Growth.

The deadline for proposals is February 1, 2019. If you would like to present a session, complete the form found on Page 15.

Nominate Members for Recognition

President Karen Parker received an email encouraging her to nominate members from our chapter for recognition at the 85th Birthday Celebration at the state convention in May. She shared this information with us at our last meeting, then asked Larkeysha Sheppard, Awards Committee Chairman, to send out an email asking you to help identify members for each of these awards. Larkeysha and her committee will complete the forms, but we need your help to get the nominations in before the February 1, 2019 deadline.

Awards:

Golden Key Award: Designed to honor members who are in the background getting things done without personal glory or gain for themselves. These members are the backbone of chapters across the state. They are dedicated members who are the thread that holds the chapter together and have a deep and abiding love for DKG. They may have never held an office, but because of them the chapter moves along fulfilling the purposes of this great society.

Rising Star Award: The Eta State Rising Star Award is intended to recognize and encourage key women educators in their early years of active membership in NC Delta Kappa Gamma. These members demonstrate exceptional growth in education, leadership, and contributions to the organization consistent with DKG's vision and purposes. Rising Star nominees reflect strong potential for successful leadership at the chapter and state levels and beyond.

Founders Award: By vote of the 1981 convention, a Founders Award was set aside to honor a North Carolina woman who may or may not be a member of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International and who has made an outstanding contribution to the improvement to the quality of human life through education, research, publications, or service. The first recipient, Dr. Laura Anderton conducted cancer research and studies on birth defects. The last and eighteenth recipient was Dr. Janis Meek, NC State Consultant: NC Dept. of Public Instruction, Career & Technical Education. The award, the highest honor Eta State can bestow upon a woman, is presented at the convention the second year of the biennium.

Message From President Savell

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR KEY WOMEN EDUCATORS
DELTA KAPPA GAMMA™

President Savell shared that December is a time of excitement and anticipation in the eyes of children. As a retired third grade teacher, she always loved reading Christmas stories and sharing holiday traditions with them. One tradition was making dough ornaments. She said the process was tedious and having time to complete them by Christmas break was tight. The ornaments would air dry for several days; then the students would paint the ornaments, allowing time to let them dry, add ribbon to hang them, and wrap them.

Many times it seemed like there was not enough time in the day to get everything done so she allowed stress to take the joy out of the activity with her class. As we approach the holidays, she wants us to remember to enjoy the small tasks and not get caught up in the things that take the joy away from our heart. She also wanted us to remember that everyone does not feel the same excitement of the season. We need to be a source of comfort to those who are sad!

To read more of President Savell's message, go to Vol. 10, No. 6 of the Eta State Newsletter. Also, you can email her at: mcdpm59@gmail.com.

Message From International President Cathy Daugherty

We are in for a very special treat this year. Our International President Cathy Daugherty will be Eta State NC's Society Representative at the May 2019 convention in Hickory. In expressing her excitement about coming to North Carolina, President Daugherty said, "What better way for me to celebrate the biennium as international president than to serve as the Society Representative to my home state of North Carolina and my hometown of Hickory! My educational journey will come full circle with this visit in my current DKG role and in this location where I first decided to become an educator."

President Daugherty, a retired Latin instructor, has been a Society member since 1988. She received the 2016 DKG Achievement Award while she was international first vice president. She also serves as Virginia's parliamentarian and chapter webmaster.

It would be a great opportunity for us to honor President Daugherty by attending the convention in May. I hope members of our chapter will have a great showing at the convention. It will be a great time of fellowship and professional development.
