THE DELTA KAPPA GAMMA SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

The Society was organized in 1929 in Austin, Texas by twelve women educators who believed there was a need to unite women educators in efforts toward better professional preparation and recognition, as well as to address other needs inherent to the women who were teaching during that era. The Society has enhanced its mission since then, assuring its relevancy in the 21st Century. Currently, the Society has a membership of over 100,000 in 19 countries. Leading women educators impacting education worldwide is the vision statement for the Society.

Alpha Zeta State is the New Jersey state organization of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International that was chartered in 1938. Our 1,000 members belong to 19 chapters around the state.
