

Northwest Regional Speakers

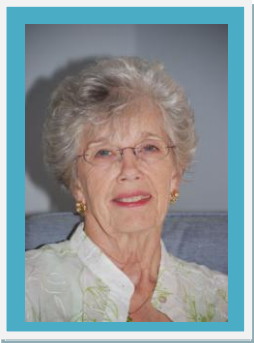

Margie Boule, a talented musician, speaker and entertainer, will speak on Thursday at the Second General Session. Margie is a well known reporter and columnist for the Oregonian. She has a humorist message regarding the lives of women. She is a Eunah Temple Holden speaker.

Laurie Wimmer, a 19 year veteran Oregon politician, will speak on Friday at the Third General Session. She will talk about legislation affecting families and women. As the past Director of the Oregon Commission for Women, Laurie will address issues such as stalking, sexual harassment and family leave. Eunah Temple Holden is supporting Laurie also.

Muriel Ward O'Tuel epitomizes the belief that "happiness is a choice within reach of each individual." For more than a decade, Dr. O'Tuel has motivated a wide variety of audiences including business, college, school, church and civic organizations. A highly acclaimed keynote speaker, Dr. O'Tuel inspires her listeners to leave positive footprints on the hearts of others. Muriel is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma in South Carolina. She will speak at the Celebration Luncheon.

Dr. Gwen S. Simmons maintains a small counseling/coaching practice and presents workshops on selected topics. Her passion is encouraging individuals in self-leadership. She is co-author of a book published this year entitled See Jane Not Run ... Teachers are Leaders, a family systems approach to leadership for the classroom teacher. She serves on the Society's ad hoc Constitution Revision team. Her vision for the Society is for it to become known as an organization of "teachers helping teachers." Gwen is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma in North Carolina. She will speak at the All States and Providences Brunch on Saturday.

Dr Carolyn Rants, International President, will be the featured speaker at the Presidents Banquet.

Corlea Plowman, Executive Coordinator, will challenge the past and present state and providence presidents at their breakfast.

