

News Release

For Immediate Release: (Date of Release)

CONTACTS:

Communications Chair: (include the person's name, email address and phone number)

Chapter President: (include the person's name, email address and phone number)

(City, State where event took place) (First paragraph could descriptively or creatively describe your chapter program. Make sure you include who was involved or participated, what you did during the program, and why you were having the program.)

(Keep release clear and concise and if possible, only one page in length. Include pictures with your release from the event or send the release as a precursor to the event with the hopes a reporter might decide to cover the story and send a photographer from the paper to your event. It always helps to craft your release so a reporter has something to build a human interest or community connection story around.)

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is an organization of key women educators, with about 100,000 members in seventeen countries - - - United States, Canada, Norway, Sweden, Mexico, Finland, Guatemala, Iceland, the Netherlands, Puerto Rico, Great Britain, El Salvador, Costa Rica, Germany, Denmark, Estonia, and Panama.

Established in 1929 in Austin, Texas, by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton and eleven co-founders, Delta Kappa Gamma provides members with outstanding opportunities for professional and personal growth. Opportunities include: seminars and conferences for leadership training and development, fellowship in an extensive network of educators, state and international scholarships and enrichment grants, and stipends for research, and special projects. More information about the society can be found at www.deltakappagamma.org and www.deltakappagamma.org/PA.
