

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International
Mu Chapter Minutes
Thursday, October 23, 2008
501 E. Sunnybrook Drive (Joanne Dankey's home)

President Glenyta Hanson welcomed the twenty-two members present to the dinner meeting and thanked the hostesses for their work and preparation of the meal of soups, salads and sandwiches. Glenyta gave special thanks to Joanne Dankey for having the chapter in her home. Hostesses included: Sandy Wehrkamp, Sherri Alvey, Linda Baloun, Dar Steenholdt, Dr. Sandra Schlenker, Verna Yarnall, Audi Arndt, and Joanne Dankey.

Dr. Rhonda Anderson reminded members about the free CEU credit that is available for all interested members.

Joanne Dankey distributed the new red books for the year. Members were encouraged to look over their information for correctness. President Glenyta pointed out our three chapter goals printed on the inside cover of the red book.

Lorraine Cleven honored the top volunteer members with beautiful certificates made by Dr. Rhonda Anderson. The members receiving certificates were: Margaret Looby, Cathy Regas, Eunice Hovland (absent), Terry Peters (absent), Marilyn Lee, Laura Riley, and Joanne Dankey. Lorraine mentioned that Joanne was our top volunteer for hours served.

President Glenyta encouraged all members to be on the look out for potential new members. Initiation is planned for in the future.

Due to illness, member, Elizabeth Pope, wrote a letter asking for reserve status. Motion made by Dr. Rhonda Anderson, second by Marilyn Lee, motion carried.

Millie Horter gave an update on raffle sales. Currently $220 has been raised for our School in Sudan Project. Updated member resumes were distributed. Members were encouraged to complete the sheets and return them at the next meeting to Millie. The raffles quilt, wall hanging, and baby afghan were donated by members Marilyn Lee, Phyllis Schrag, and Millie Horter.

President Glenyta gave an welcome to the transfer members from Omicron. Former Omicron members, Cathy Anderson, Jane Leonhardt, Nancy Noel, and Audi Arndt gave brief introductions to the group.

Dee Gulson is the chairman of the Archive Committee. She and two other members will go through Mu Chapter, Omicron Chapter, and Theta Chapter materials.

Marilyn Lee gave an exceptional quilt talk. Over a dozen quilt examples were shown to the group. Marilyn shared that good quality materials should be used in a quilt because they often outlive the person who has made them. Also, they should be dated and archived on the back for future reference.

Mu Chapter Treasurer, Jean Eidsness handed out a copy of the most current treasurer's report. Jean stated that dues are in and thanked for that collection. A motion was made to accept the treasurer's report by Marilyn Hult, second by Linda Baloun, motion carried.

Dr. Sharon Andrews, South Dakota Teacher of the Year 2007, teaches at the Challenge Center (Garfield Elementary) here in Sioux Falls. Dr. Andrews shared some of her most important educational experiences with the group and her philosophy of education.

President Glenyta thanked all members for coming. The meeting was adjourned.

The next Mu Chapter meeting is scheduled for Thursday, November 20, 2008 at Glenyta Hanson's home, 2500 W. 22nd Street.
