

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International
Mu Chapter Minutes
Thursday, September 4, 2008
Lincoln High Cafeteria and Little Theater

President Glenyta Hanson welcomed the twenty-nine members present to the dinner meeting and thanked the hostesses for their work and preparation of the meal of chicken, salads, and desserts. Floral table decorations were provided by Phyllis Schrag.

Dee Gulson led the singing of the table prayer before the meal began.

Marilyn Lee circulated the Retired Teachers Table Decoration sign-up sheet.

Mu Chapter treasurer, Jean Eidsness, presented the 2008-2009 budget.

Becky Sluiter, Coordinator of Educational Opportunities and Resources at South Dakota Achieve, spoke about volunteer positions available at STI. These positions would be to assist mentally disabled learners in their classrooms to achieve academic success.

Before moving into the Little Theater for the presentation, President Glenyta pointed out the display of quilt, wall hanging, and afghans which are the raffle items for our "Coins for Classrooms" project. Members, Marilyn Lee, Phyllis Schrag, and Millie Horter, donated these beautiful items for the raffle.

Moses Joknhial II presented information about his "Coins for Classrooms" project in South Sudan, Africa. Money raised for this project will help build a school in Moses' village, Panyang. Through his power point presentation, Moses explained the work and resources necessary to build and sustain a school. Moses' American mom, Rhonda Morris, also spoke about the project.

First and Second Vice Presidents, Millie Horter and Joanne Dankey, distributed envelopes to members containing the raffle tickets and information for the "Coins for Classrooms" fundraising project.

New Business

Dee Gulson made a motion to accept the budget as printed, seconded by Marilyn Hult. Motion carried.

Mu Chapter scrapbooks and other items will be stored at the Augustana Center for Western Studies in a temperature controlled environment.

A committee to help go through archive materials was set up. Members include Dee Gulson, Marilyn Hult, and Dr. Doris Johnson.

The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting is scheduled for October 23, 2008.
