

OFFICIAL USA 2012 FLAG-FLYING DAYS

January 1	New Years Day
January 16	Martin Luther King, Jr. Day (holiday observing MLK's birthday, Jan. 15, 1929)
February 12	Abraham Lincoln's Birthday
February 20	Presidents' Day (holiday which combines Lincoln's & Washington's birthdays)
February 22	George Washington's Birthday
May 13	Mother's Day
May 19	Armed Forces Day (Armed Forces Day is a day to recognize and honor the military forces in your nation. Other nations throughout the world participate in observing this day.)
May 28	Memorial Day (honors those who have died in military service to USA)
June 14	Flag Day (to show respect for our flag and the people who designed and created it)
June 17	Father's Day
July 4	Independence Day
September 3	Labor Day (Labor Day is a Legal U.S. Holiday originating from the Central Labor Union. It is to create a day off for the working man. It became a Federal Holiday in 1894.)
September 11	Patriots' Day (honoring those who lost their lives on 9/11/01) flags should be flown at half staff
October 10	Columbus Day (honors Columbus first voyage to America)
November 6	Election Day
November 12	Veterans' Day (Armistice Day celebrating the end of WW1)
November 22	Thanksgiving Day
December 7	Pearl Harbor Day (bombing of Pearl Harbor marking the beginning of USA entrance into WW2)
December 25	Christmas Day